

Seller Policies & Agreement

Please review the following policies carefully. By registering and submitting payment for a seller space, you acknowledge and agree to the terms below.

Seller spaces are not considered reserved until registration and payment have been received.

Table locations will be assigned by event management. Sellers may not move, exchange, or add tables without prior approval.

APPROVED ITEMS

Thrifty & Hitched is intended specifically for wedding-related items. Merchandise should be new, gently used, or in reasonable resale condition.

Event management reserves the right to determine whether an item is appropriate for the event.

Items that are excessively damaged, dirty, unsafe, offensive, illegal, hazardous, counterfeit, or unrelated to weddings may not be sold.

Food, beverages, alcohol, medications, weapons, and other regulated or prohibited products may not be sold.

PRICING & SALES

Each seller is responsible for pricing their own merchandise.

We strongly encourage sellers to clearly mark prices on all merchandise before the event begins.

All purchases are transactions directly between the seller and buyer. Thrifty & Hitched and the event venue are not responsible for collecting, processing, refunding, or resolving payments between sellers and shoppers.

Sellers are responsible for providing their own preferred payment methods, including cash, change, Venmo, PayPal, card processing, or other payment options.

Sellers are responsible for any applicable taxes or other legal obligations related to their sales.

All sales are considered between the individual seller and purchaser. Any returns, refunds, disputes, or exchanges must be handled directly between those parties.

Sellers may not begin setting up before the designated setup period unless prior arrangements have been approved.

All merchandise and displays must remain within the seller's assigned space.

Aisles, exits, doorways, fire equipment, and neighboring seller spaces must remain clear at all times.

Large items such as arches, backdrops, shelving, mirrors, signs, or freestanding displays must receive prior approval if they extend beyond the seller's assigned space.

Nothing may be taped, nailed, stapled, screwed, pinned, or otherwise attached to the venue's walls, floors, doors, tables, or other property without approval.

Sellers are responsible for safely displaying all merchandise. Unstable or potentially dangerous displays may be required to be removed or adjusted.

SELLER CONDUCT

We want Thrifted & Hitched to be a welcoming and enjoyable experience for everyone.

Sellers are expected to behave professionally and respectfully toward shoppers, other sellers, event staff, and venue staff.

Aggressive selling, harassment, inappropriate behavior, excessive noise, or disruption of another seller's space will not be permitted.

Event management reserves the right to ask a seller to leave the event for inappropriate or unsafe behavior. Registration fees will not be refunded in these circumstances.

ATTENDANCE AT YOUR TABLE

Sellers are responsible for supervising their merchandise throughout the event.

The venue and event staff are not responsible for watching seller tables, handling transactions, or protecting merchandise while a seller is away from their space.

If you need to temporarily leave your table, we recommend having another responsible person supervise your merchandise.

EARLY TEARDOWN

To maintain a positive shopping experience, sellers are expected to remain set up until the official conclusion of the event.

Early teardown is not permitted without approval from event management.

This policy helps ensure that shoppers arriving later in the event still receive the full Thrifted & Hitched experience.

CLEANUP & UNSOLD ITEMS

Each seller is responsible for cleaning their assigned space at the conclusion of the event.

ALL unsold merchandise must leave the venue with the seller unless an approved donation program has been specifically announced by event management.

Items may not be abandoned, left behind, placed in venue dumpsters, or left for venue staff to dispose of.

This includes boxes, packaging, broken décor, floral materials, signage, furniture, and other merchandise.

Sellers may be charged for excessive cleanup or disposal costs resulting from merchandise or trash left behind.

DAMAGE TO THE VENUE

Sellers are responsible for damage caused by themselves, their helpers, merchandise, displays, carts, equipment, or setup materials.

The seller may be held financially responsible for repair or replacement costs resulting from damage to venue property.

Please notify event staff immediately if accidental damage occurs.

PERSONAL PROPERTY & LIABILITY

Sellers participate in Thrifted & Hitched at their own risk.

The event organizer and venue are not responsible for lost, stolen, misplaced, broken, or damaged merchandise, money, personal belongings, displays, equipment, or other property before, during, or after the event.

Sellers are responsible for maintaining control of their merchandise, money, and personal belongings throughout the event.

To the extent permitted by law, the seller agrees to release and hold harmless the event organizer, venue, property owner, employees, representatives, and agents from claims arising from the seller's participation in the event, except where prohibited by law.

INJURY & SAFETY

Sellers are responsible for maintaining a safe selling space.

Cords, boxes, merchandise, displays, carts, and other items may not create tripping hazards or block aisles.

Any unsafe display or condition identified by event staff must be corrected immediately.

Sellers are responsible for the actions of any individuals assisting them with setup, sales, or teardown.

CANCELLATIONS & REFUNDS

Seller registration fees are non-refundable, unless the event is canceled by the organizer.

If a seller is unable to attend, please notify event management as soon as possible.

Seller registrations may not be transferred or resold to another person without prior approval.

If the event must be postponed or canceled due to severe weather, emergency conditions, government restrictions, or circumstances outside the organizer's reasonable control, event management will communicate available options to registered sellers.

FOOD & BEVERAGE

Outside alcoholic beverages are not permitted.

Any alcohol consumed on the property must be purchased and served in accordance with venue policies and applicable laws.

Sellers are responsible for following all venue rules regarding outside food and beverages.

PHOTOGRAPHY & EVENT PROMOTION

Photography and video may take place during Thrifted & Hitched for event and venue marketing purposes.

By participating in the event, sellers acknowledge that general photographs or video of the event may be captured and used for promotional purposes, subject to applicable law.

SELLER ACKNOWLEDGMENT

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the Seller Policies & Agreement.

I understand that:

My seller registration includes the number of tables I have purchased.

I am responsible for my merchandise and personal belongings.

I am responsible for handling my own sales and payments.

I am responsible for safely setting up and operating my seller space.

I will remain set up until the designated teardown time unless otherwise approved.

I will remove all merchandise, displays, boxes, and personal belongings at the conclusion of the event.

I understand that my registration fee is non-refundable except as otherwise stated in this agreement.

I agree to follow all event and venue policies.

I understand that failure to follow these policies may result in removal from the event without refund.
